Highbury Fields is a rural development of just 36 two, three and four bedroom homes with generous living spaces.

The properties are built to the highest standards, benefiting from front and rear gardens and parking, with many also including a single or double garage. Bathrooms have modern white sanitary ware and ceramic wall tiling. The individually designed kitchens are complemented by top of the range appliances.

Clutton is an historic village and civil parish within the Chew Valley, Somerset. Surrounded by stunning countryside views and beautiful lakes, the local area has a thriving community and friendly atmosphere.

Renowned for its natural beauty, Clutton benefits from a popular social club, playground, three public houses, and a Parish church as well as a Scheduled Ancient Monument; Highbury Hill which is one of the most significant archaeological sites in the country.

For families

Highbury Fields offers the perfect setting for families with a range of good educational establishments at all levels.

The development is less than a ten-minute walk from Clutton Primary School and there is a school bus service available to Norton Hill Secondary School. The development is also within the Chew Valley School catchment area.

There is a playground within a stones throw and nearby activities for the whole family include Cowntastic Farm Park and Playbarn, Chew Valley Country Farm, Wookey Hole Caves and the Radstock Museum.

“The Curo commitment”

The Curo commitment is our guarantee to our customers to make the experience of buying a new home as easy, enjoyable and informative as possible. This does not stop when the keys are handed over; the Customer Care Team will be on hand to support you when you move into your new home.

Before you move:

Reservation agreement

Once you have chosen your perfect plot your Sales Adviser will be on hand to ensure all aspects of the reservation process are fully explained.

Point of contact

Your Sales Advisers on site will be your point of contact throughout the building process and beyond.

Specification

When moving into your new home with Curo you can be assured that the build quality, internal specification and finish of our individually designed homes will exceed expectations. Our contemporary well-designed kitchens are both sophisticated and practical, offering quality units and integrated appliances.

Your Sales Adviser will be able to guide you through your selections and other optional extras you may require from our extensive selections.

Estimated build completion

When you reserve your new home with us we will provide you with an estimated completion date and keep you informed of the progression of the construction, up to the point when it is ready for you to move.

New home demonstration

The Site Manager who built your new home and your Sales Adviser will be on hand either on the day of your move or soon after, to guide you through the key features of the property and the best ways to maintain it. All the information demonstrated to you will be included within your Handover Pack for reference.

After you move:

Handover Pack

On completion of your new home you will receive a Handover Pack which contains all the information you will require about your property.

Courtesy call

A short while after you have moved in either your Sales Adviser or the Site Manager (if the development is still under construction) will contact you to ensure that you are completely happy with your new home.

Quality assured

Throughout the build process we inspect the quality of the workmanship, with the support of the NHBC Building Inspector and Local Authority Building Control Officer. Our Customer Care Manager, who will have watched your new home being built, will be your point of contact once you move in. Your new home will be covered by a 10 year NHBC Warranty alongside a 2 year Curo Warranty.

Dedicated customer care helpline

At Curo we operate a dedicated service to our customers and the helpline details will be included within the Handover Pack. You will also be supported by our Customer Care Manager who will be monitoring calls made to the helpline to ensure that any issues are dealt with effectively and efficiently.

“The buying process”

Buying a new home is an exciting time. Now you have found your new Curo home, the following information will help you with your move.

Obtain financial advice

Although you will have already had some advice at this stage, Curo can recommend independent specialists who will help with your exact requirements.

Appoint a solicitor

Once you have reserved your new Curo home you will need to hire a solicitor or conveyancer to act on your behalf. Again, Curo will be happy to recommend a local company on request.

Organise your mortgage

Contact your mortgage broker to get everything in place.

Selling another property?

Please give the details of your current property sale to your Curo Sales Adviser. They will monitor the sale to make sure it runs as smoothly as possible.

Signing and exchanging contracts

Once your solicitor has received your mortgage offer you will be ready to sign your contracts. At this stage you will be asked to pay your deposit. You will be ready to exchange contracts when your buyers are in a position to proceed.

Confirming your specification choices

Your Curo Sales Adviser will be on hand to talk you through the specification options for your new home (dependent on build stage at time of purchase).

Home visit

Should you wish to come and see the progress of your property, your Curo Sales Adviser will do their best to arrange a visit with the Site Manager.

Build completion

Curo will keep you informed at all times of the estimated completion date of your new home. We will endeavour to deliver the property on time however this final date may be affected by weather conditions, connections of services and material shortages.

Legal completion and home handover

Completion will take place on an agreed date when the balance of payment has been received by Curo. You will then be given the keys to your new home.

Welcome home!

Along with your keys, you will also be given a certificate to confirm that your new home is in perfect order and a Handover Pack which covers information on warranties, Customer Care and advice on how to look after your new home.

Then simply move in!

“Peace of mind”

Curo build to the highest standards.

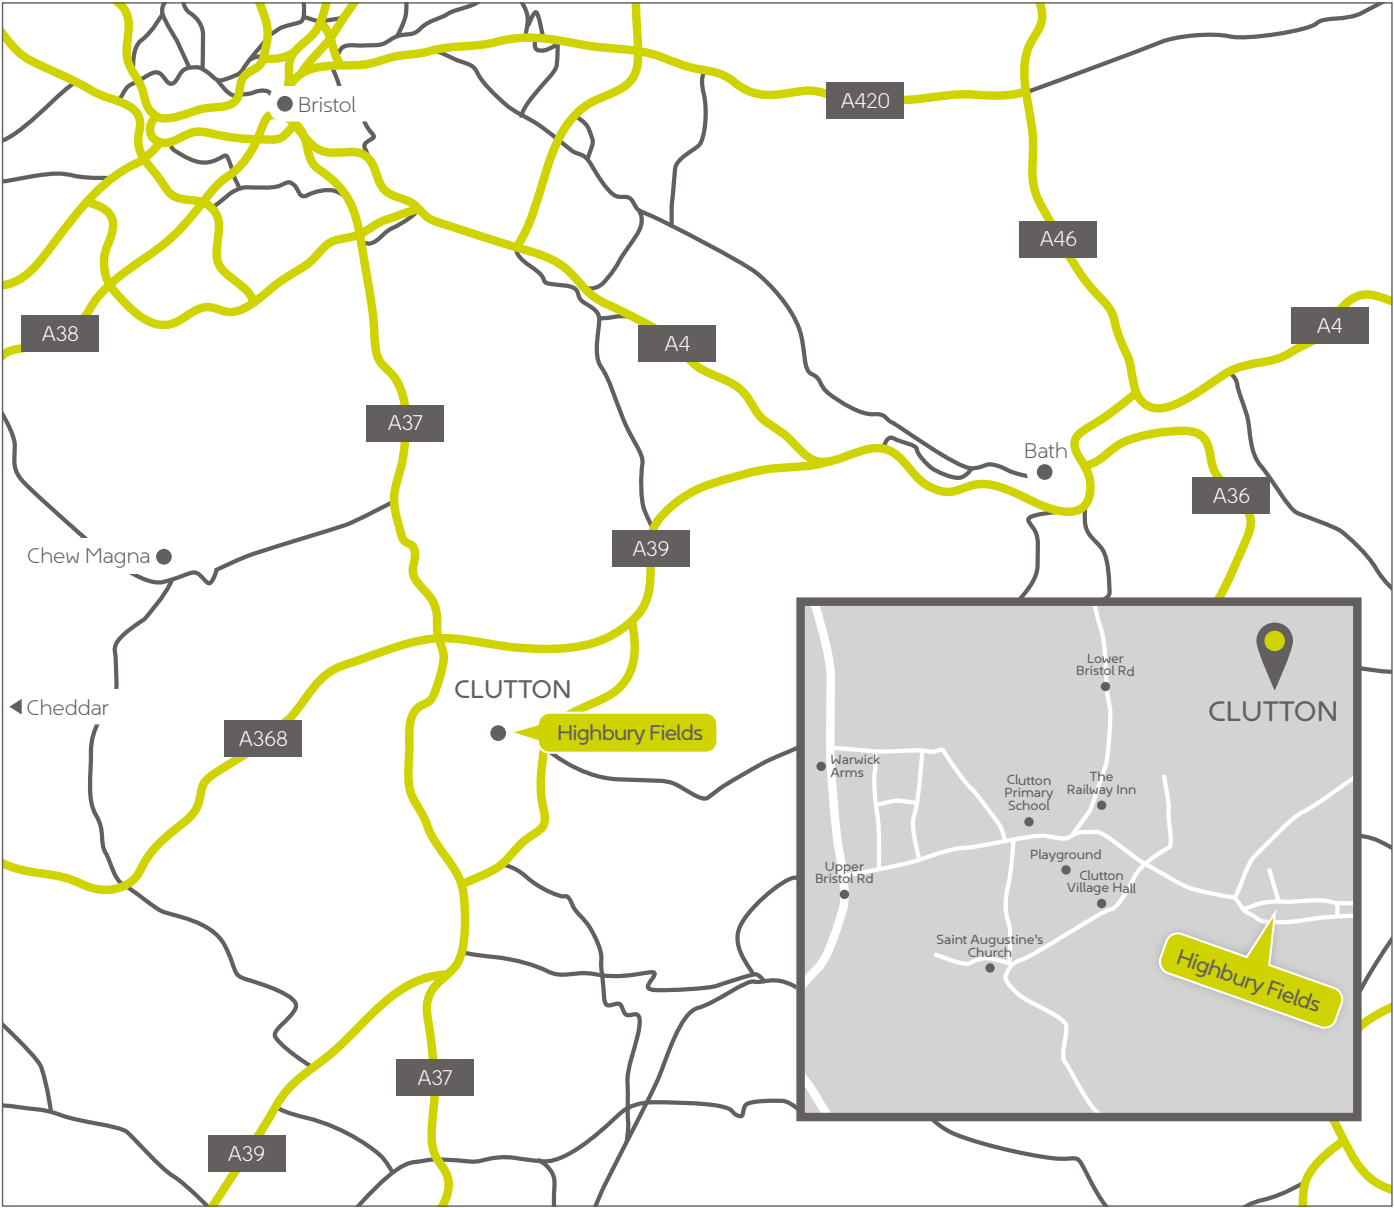

The National House Building Council, known as the NHBC, is a national body which regulates standards for the house building industry.

For the first two years, Curo will correct any problems with your home which do not adhere to the NHBC guidelines.

In addition for extra peace of mind you have a 10 year NHBC warranty.

More information and a list of what is covered by the warranty will be provided in your Handover Pack.
